COUNTY COUNCIL
Snohomish County, Washington

ORDINANCE NO. 80-087
INCREASING FLOWAGE FEES, FUEL SALES,
SNOHOMISH COUNTY AIRPORT

BE IT ORDAINED. That section 15.08.621, Snohomish County Code as enacted by resolution on June 24, 1974, which now reads:

~~15.08.621 Aviation fuel sales--Flowage fee.~~ Oil companies delivering and selling aviation fuel to any business or individual for an aircraft located on or operating from Snohomish County Airport shall pay a fuel charge of two cents per gallon for aviation gas or one cent per gallon for turbine fuel. This charge shall be collected by the fuel company making the sale and reported each month on a form prescribed by and acceptable to the airport manager. The form and remittance shall be submitted to the airport office each month.

is amended to read:

~~15.08.621 - Aviation Fuel Sales-User Fees.~~ Any firm or individual taking delivery on Paine Field of aviation fuel that is put into its/his aircraft fuel tank(s) shall pay a fee of three cents per gallon on aviation gasoline and three cents per gallon on jet or turbine fuel. These fees shall be collected by the oil company or other firm, bringing said fuels onto Paine Field, from the user directly or indirectly thru its dealer. Collections shall be remitted each month to the airport, less any exemptions, on a form prescribed by the Airport Manager.

Aviation gas or turbine fuel which is not used by any aircraft based at or otherwise using the Snohomish County airport shall be exempt from this fee. It shall be the responsibility of the user of these fuels to establish its/his fee exemption under this ordinance. Any refunds must be requested, directly or indirectly, from the oil company or other firm that originally collected the fee. Fee refund requests shall be submitted on an Exemption Certificate, prescribed by the Airport Manager, and shall accompany monthly oil company reports.

PASSED this 3rd day of December, 1980.
