COUNTY COUNCIL
Snohomish County, Washington

ORDINANCE NO. 83-032
ESTABLISHING JAIL WORK PROGRAM; AMENDING SCC CH. 2.15

BE IT ORDAINED:

Section 1. A new section is added to Snohomish County Code Ch. 2.15, adopted by Ordinance 82-097, on September 15, 1982, to read as follows:

2.15.035 Jail Work Program. In addition to the responsibilities of the Department of Corrections set forth in sec. 2.15.030, the department shall administer a Jail Work Program as follows:

(1) The district court sentencing a misdemeanor defendant shall determine his eligibility for participation in the Jail Work Program. Only those defendants who:

(a) Have pled guilty to or been convicted of a misdemeanor offense;

(b) Have been sentenced to two or more days in the county jail; and

(c) Have signed a Jail Work Program Agreement setting forth:

(i) The total number of days required and time period allowed for completion,

(ii) Conditions of program,

(iii) Release and hold harmless agreement,

(iv) Acknowledgment regarding consequences of non-compliance, shall be eligible for participation in the Jail Work Program. The court sentencing the defendant shall indicate on the order of commitment whether the defendant is eligible for participation in the Jail Work Program.

(2) For an adult misdemeanor defendant sentenced to two or more days in the county jail who has been certified by the district court as eligible for participation in the Jail Work Program, the department shall book in the defendant by a process consisting at a minimum of the following:

- (a) Completion of a Health Status Record by the defendant,
- (b) Completion of Booking Officer's Visual Opinion by department staff,
- (c) Taking four photographs of the defendant,
- (d) Taking fingerprints of defendant,
- (e) Entering relevant information in computer.

(3) The department shall determine the appropriate work site to which the eligible defendant will be assigned. Work sites shall be on county owned property or other publicly-owned property. Eligible defendants may be assigned to work sites on publicly-owned property other than county property pursuant to the terms of an interlocal agreement providing for assignment of eligible defendants to such work sites.

(4) The defendant shall complete and sign a Job Assignment Form which shall, at a minimum, specify the following:

- (a) The number of days of work to be performed,
- (b) The date upon which the defendant shall commence work,
- (c) The date by which the defendant shall complete the work,
- (d) The name and address of the agency or department to which the defendant is assigned to perform work and the name of the supervisor to whom the defendant shall report,
- (e) That the defendant will not use any drugs or intoxicating beverage or substance during the hours any such work is performed, and will not report to the work site while under the influence of any drug, intoxicating beverage or substance,
- (f) That the defendant agrees to perform all work to the satisfaction of the supervisor,
- (g) That violation of the terms of the job assignment form will result in defendant being immediately placed into custody in the jail to serve the remainder of his term,

(h) That the defendant agrees to release, hold harmless and indemnify the county, its officers, agents and employees, from and against all liability, loss, cost, damage, expense, action, claims for personal injury, (including death), claims for damage, and claims for worker's compensation, regardless of cause, suffered by the defendant in connection with performance of work for the county or other designated work site under the Job Assignment.

The defendant's agreement to comply with the terms of the Job Assignment Form shall be attested to by the signed acknowledgment of the department. The original form is to be kept by the department and additional copies shall be distributed as appropriate.

(5) At the date and time specified in the Job Assignment Form, the defendant shall report to the designated supervisor and shall thereafter perform the various work assignments made by such supervisor.

(6) The work site supervisor shall notify the department, on a form prescribed by the department, of the successful completion of the assigned work by the defendant. Should the defendant not complete the required number of hours of work within the time stated in the Job Assignment Form or if the defendant has not performed satisfactorily, the work site supervisor shall immediately notify the department which shall thereupon place the defendant into custody in the jail to complete the balance of his sentence.

PASSED this 25 day of April, 1983.
