ORDINANCE NO. 89-057

ANIMAL CONTROL IMPOUNDMENT FEES

BE IT ORDAINED:

Section 1. Snohomish County Code section 9.12.110 last amended by section 16 of Resolution adopted July 10, 1978, is amended to read as follows:

9.12.110 Redemption. Any animal impounded pursuant to the provisions of this title may be redeemed upon payment of the redemption fee as herein provided and upon evidence the violation has been corrected. The correction of a violation includes the licensing of any unlicensed animal required by this title to be so licensed. The redemption fee for an animal includes the costs of apprehension and transportation, and the costs of impoundment and care of the animal. The director of the impound facility may prescribe the amounts assessed for impoundment and care; provided, however, that said amounts assessed be reasonably commensurate with the related actual costs; provided further, that said amounts assessed shall ((not exceed seven dollars ($7.00))) be twenty dollars ($20.00) for impoundment, and three dollars ($3.00) per day for care. The director of the animal control agency may prescribe the amount assessed for transportation costs; provided, that said amount be commensurate with the actual costs incurred; provided further, that said amount assessed shall not exceed seven dollars ($7.00).

DATED this 5th day of July, 1989.
