

SNOHOMISH COUNTY COUNCIL
SNOHOMISH COUNTY, WASHINGTON

ORDINANCE NO. 93-075

RELATING TO THE TRANSPORTATION DEMAND MANAGEMENT
PROVISIONS OF TITLE 26B SCC
MODIFYING THE AUTOMATIC REPEAL DATE OF
AUGUST 31, 1993; AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 91-025

WHEREAS, the automatic repeal date was set as February 9, 1992 by Amended Ordinance No. 91-025, was extended to August 31, 1992 by Ordinance 92-005, and extended to August 31, 1993 by Ordinance 92-090, and

WHEREAS, the intent of the repeal date for the TDM provisions of Title 26B was the expectation that a separate ordinance would be put into effect by August 31, 1993 for the purpose of fully addressing all aspects of TDM as applied to both new development and existing employers required to reduce commute trips, and

WHEREAS, the Commute Trip Reduction Ordinance addressing TDM measures for existing employers was adopted on February 24, 1993, and

WHEREAS, the ordinance addressing TDM measures for new development has been drafted, and

WHEREAS, processing of said new development TDM ordinance will extend beyond the August 31, 1993 repeal date,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED:

Section 1. Section 3 of Amended Ordinance No. 91-025, adopted February 20, 1991, (uncodified) as amended by Ordinance 92-005, adopted January 13, 1992, (uncodified), and as amended by Ordinance 92-090, adopted August 17, 1992 (uncodified) is hereby amended as follows:

Section 3 Repealed. Sections 1 (adding new section SCC 26B.55.140) and 2 (amending SCC 26B.55.020 to address credit for SCC 26B.55.140 TDM requirements) of Amended Ordinance No. 91-025, adopted February 20, 1991 are repealed on ~~((August 31, 1993))~~ on December 31, 1993.

PASSED the 25th day of Aug., 1993.
